

IEEE PES SUBSTATIONS COMMITTEE SOCIAL BANQUET 2015 WABASHA STREET CAVES WHO-DUN-IT

This year's social banquet will take place at the Wabasha Street Caves, one of the most unique facilities for private events in the Twin Cities. Located along the Mississippi River in downtown St. Paul, The Wabasha Street Caves offers a fascinating and mysterious setting. The Caves 12,000 square feet of space is tastefully finished with brick walls, stucco ceilings, beautiful tile floors in the cocktail area and a theatrical stage.

Step inside and the fun begins as tonight's event will include costumed gangster tour guides for tours of the caves and a good old fashioned "who-dun-it"—Tommy Gun Trouble. This 1930's interactive murder mystery will turn our guests into FBI trainees who are at the scene of a murder. Will any of the FBI agents in training be able to determine who committed the crime?

A unique setting, mysterious entertainment and a catered, seated dinner all add up to a memorable event! You do NOT want to miss this one!
