

IEEE

Binghamton
Section

“Tioga-Downs Casino Night”

IEEE Binghamton Section Dinner Meeting

Leading Technology, Innovation, and Growth in New York

The IEEE Binghamton Section GOLD affinity group are holding an event at Tioga-Downs Casino. The evening will include a buffet dinner, a presentation on the use of electronics in the operation of the casino, and time on the casino floor with a Freeplay voucher worth $20. For those interested, Tioga-Downs will also be showing the UFC 104 pay-per-view event in the lounge.

Date: October 24, 2009

Location: Tioga-Downs Casino. Directions: 2384 W. River Road
Nichols, NY 13812

Hosts: The Binghamton Section of IEEE (www.ieee.org/binghamton) GOLD affinity group.

Agenda:

6:00 PM – Check-in ← You must attend check-in to receive the $20 voucher.

6:30 PM - Presentation by Paul Scheelk

7:00 PM - Dinner

7:30 PM – Free play on Casino Floor

10:00 PM – UFC 104 Pay-per-view (if interested)

Menu: Tioga Downs Buffet

Cost (per session): IEEE Students and Life Members: $10; IEEE Members: $10; Non-members: $15.

RSVP via email to Socci@ieee.org and pay at the door.

Speaker: Paul Scheelk, American Racing and Entertainment Regional IT Director

Paul Scheelk is with the American Racing and Entertainment as Regional Director of Information Technology. Paul has 23 years of technology experience with nine of those years as a Director of Information Technology in the Gaming Industry. He has worked Bally's SDS and Konami Forcise gaming systems. Additional operating systems Paul has experience with include Micros POS, Opera Hotel Reservations system, Bally's CMS, Novell and Microsoft servers and Office Automation along with numerous Windows platforms. Experience with Siemens ROLMS, Nortel, and Cisco VOIP are highlights of his telecommunication background. He holds an Associate Degree from North Central Michigan College and is scheduled to finish his BSBA in Information Technology in 2010. Paul also holds a Microsoft Certified Professional (MCP) certification.

Paul is a member of IEEE through the University of Phoenix.

His topic will be Technology in a Casino Environment. He will highlight information systems, security, communications and gaming machine technology.

RSVP IS REQUIRED: In order to receive the $20 gaming voucher, RSVP to treadwsm@ieee.org including each attendee name and date of birth. Regulations require this paperwork to be completed prior to the event. Identification and signatures will be required at check-in