

STUDENT PAPER CONTEST

2007 IEEE SARNOFF SYMPOSIUM

$850 IN AWARD MONEY
SUBMISSION DEADLINE: January 31, 2007

Student Paper/Poster Session:

Student Paper Chair: Prof. Shalinee Kishore, Lehigh University

Following a long-standing tradition the 2007 Sarnoff Symposium is featuring a student paper/poster session and contest on April 30, 2007. At the beginning of the session, students will give a short presentation of their research and will then be available for detailed discussion in front of their posters.

DATE: April 30, 2007

CONTEST RULES:

All rules must be followed for a paper/poster to be considered for an award.

1. Any full or part time graduate or undergraduate student(s) is eligible to compete.
2. The student must be the primary author of the paper. Multiple student co-authors are allowed; any money awarded will be split by the student co-authors. The academic faculty advisor may be a co-author, however awarded money is for students only.
3. Paper topics should be research oriented and must be consistent with the theme of the Symposium (Advances in Wired and Wireless Communications). The paper format should follow the format posted at the symposium website with maximum five pages.
4. The student(s) must also prepare and present a poster at the symposium. Poster format: a four-foot by four-foot poster-board and thumbtacks will be provided.
5. Paper Contest Judging Criteria - Paper topics must be consistent with the theme of the Symposium. Awards will be based on originality, quantitative content, paper quality and poster presentation quality (content and presentation).
6. Student papers are not treated as regular technical papers. They will be published in a separate digest instead of the conference technical proceeding. No copyright transfer is required for student papers, and the authors may concurrently submit the student papers to other conferences and/or journals.
7. Student Paper/Poster Award: First Place: $500.00 Second Place: $250.00 Third Place: $100.00

Papers must be submitted electronically in PDF format by January 31, 2007 to the student paper chair at the following address:
Prof. Shalinee Kishore (skishore@lehigh.edu)

Papers not received by January 31, 2007 will not be published.
