E-Week Events

Student Activities

Several colleges in Vermont have planned E-Week festivities of their own. These festivities include competitions, speakers and special presentations.

The University of Vermont's College of Engineering and Mathematical Sciences and the Vermont Air National Guard will once again host a competition for elementary, middle and high school students asking students to create edible cars, wind mills, passive helicopters and pasta bridges and bring them to the Vermont Air National Guard in South Burlington, VT on Thursday, February 18, 2010. For more information and to register a team visit: <http://www.cems.uvm.edu/eweek/>

Norwich University will be conducting their annual E-week activities including a 2 Person Sled Relay, Snow Sculptures, and Engineer Athletics throughout the week. The events will conclude with a Student Engineering Banquet and keynote speaker. For more information contact Carol Stephens at cstephen@norwich.edu or 485-2278.

Order of the Engineer

This ceremony is an opportunity for an engineer to formalize his or her commitment to the engineering profession. This year's ceremony will be held in 101 Fleming Museum, University of Vermont on Friday, February 19, 2010 and will begin at 4:30 p.m. Parking will be available in the Votey Hall parking lot. If you're interested in participating, please contact Karen Bernard at 656-3333 or Karen.Bernard@uvm.edu.

Introduce a Girl to Engineering Day

Female engineers will talk about their experiences and careers during the Introduce a Girl to Engineering Day at the Center for Technology (CTE) in Essex Junction, Vermont to be held on February 18, 2010 between 11 am. to 1:00 p.m. Speakers will include UVM students from the Society of Women Engineers (SWE), and local engineers from Burton Snowboard, IBM, as well as other female engineers representing electrical, design, mechanical and process engineering.

Jim Dirmaier, engineering and architecture teacher at CTE and Kelly Walsh, a representative from Vermont works for Women, have oversight for this event. For more information contact Kelly Walsh: kwalsh@vtworksforwomen.org

Engineers Week Banquet

Engineers Week festivities will close with the annual Banquet. It will be held at the Sheraton in Burlington, Vermont on Friday, February 19.

Kevin P. Hand, a planetary scientist/astrobiologist at NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory (JPL) in Pasadena, California, will headline this year's event. He will give a presentation on his work. The Reception will begin at 5:30 pm. Dinner will be served at 6:30 with awards and presentation to follow.

The cost is $35 ($20 for students). If you wish to only attend the presentation without dinner, the cost is $10. Please RSVP to Amanda Hanaway-Corrente by Feb. 12th at amanda.hanaway@gmail.com or 802.760.4842.

Engineers Day Under the Dome

All Vermont Engineers are invited to gather in the Card Room at the Statehouse on TBD. Representatives from the state engineering societies will be available to discuss issues that are of interest to the engineering community. We welcome all to attend and meet the local professionals dedicated to protecting the health, safety and welfare of the general public.
