Invitation to "Enlightenment"

On the Implementation of Automated Surveillance Systems

iOmniscient is pleased to invite you to a special "enlightenment" afternoon to learn more about some of our latest technologies including the much awaited "Facial Recognition in a Crowd" and on the practical aspects of implementing Intelligent Surveillance.

The session opened by Barry Buffier, Director-General, State & Regional Development comprises an informative five part seminar and ends with the launch of the new book "Automated Surveillance" followed by a tour of the State of the Art Security System at the National Maritime Museum.

ALL THE ATTENDEES WILL GET A FREE CD COPY OF THE NEW BOOK.

Registration is FREE but seats are limited. Hence we request you to RSVP to christina@iomniscient.com

Place: National Maritime Museum Auditorium
Darling Harbour, Sydney (next to the Convention Centre)

Date: 25th August 2009

Time: 1.30pm for registration and coffee
2pm – 4-pm followed by a tour of the Museum Security System
