

EVERYTHING YOU WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT ELECTRIC MOTORS BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK

Local engineers present an in-service program to assist teachers in teaching technologically-oriented subject matter.

8 August 2001

- Learn the basic principles of electric motors
- Apply theory to everyday uses of electric motors
- Build a working model of an electric motor for classroom use

Presented by Mr. Ralph Painter, PE

FURTHER INFORMATION

Doug Wagner • 941-741-7412
Douglas Gorham, Ed.D. • 941-753-4758
d.g.gorham@ieee.org

Sponsored by the Florida West Coast Section of the Institute of Electrical & Electronics Engineers (IEEE). IEEE is the world's largest technical professional society, serving more than 350,000 members in the information & electrotechnology communities in over 150 countries.