Call for Presentations

The IEEE Orlando Section was established on May 13th, 1959, and 2009 will be its 50th anniversary. The very same day is also the 125th anniversary of IEEE. The Section is planning on a series of major celebration events, including an exhibition showing the 50-year history of the Orlando Section, publication of a collection of articles from former and current Orlando Section members, and seminar sessions.

Presentations of seminars sessions are solicited in the following areas:

- Orlando Section History: Any presentation of IEEE or IEEE Orlando Section history is welcome, your personal experiences with Orlando Section are particular encouraged.
- Technical Presentations: Any technical presentations of your work, research and interests in IEEE fields are welcome. Please tailor your presentation to the favor of general audience as much as possible.

Schedule of Presentations: 1:00pm –5:00pm

- Format of Presentation: 1) Short Presentation: 15 – 20 minutes with Q&A
2) Long Presentation: 30 minutes with Q&A

Submission Deadline: Friday, May 1st, 2009

Acceptance Notification: No later than Tuesday May 5th. We review the abstracts as we receive them. Please submit your abstract ASAP. We will continue accept submission until May 4th Monday if slots available.
