From
<http://www.synchrony.com/aboutus/index.cfm.htm>:

Synchrony provides advanced products, systems and services for industries using rotating machinery

Synchrony has been providing advanced products and technology to our clients since 1993. Founded by its CEO & President, Dr. Victor Iannello, it is dedicated to providing world-class products and services that improve quality, productivity, and profitability.

As a testament to our engineering excellence and creativity, we have received eight Small Business Innovation Research Awards from NASA and the Department of Defense. We were selected for each award based on our novel technical approach to solving a problem, our experience, and our capabilities.

We were also selected as one of Virginia's Fantastic 50 Companies. This award was presented to us for our sustained growth and profitability.

Date: Thursday, May 21, 2009

Tour: 6:30 PM

Dinner: about 7:45 PM

Cost: No cost for the tour. Those attending dinner will order from the menu.

Reservations are not required, but a count will be helpful.
