

IEEE Life Members Spring 2017 Meeting

Energy Engineering at City of Hamilton

Our Presentation for this Wednesday May 17 is by Frank Gazzola, Superintendent Energy Engineering at the City of Hamilton.

The topic speaks to their Energy Policy and the measures that Hamilton has taken to harness Biomethane to produce power and renewable natural gas.

This presentation promises to be very informative and timely concerning energy and the environment.