

Yurij Sepp (IEEE memberships from the beginning 2000) was born in Leningrad in 1948. He graduated in astrophysics from Saint Petersburg State University (Russia) in 1972 and earned Ph.D. degree in electromechanics from Saint Petersburg Technical University (Russia) in 1989.

Yurij Sepp is an Associated Professor of Saint Petersburg Electrotechnical University "LETI" (Russia) at present time. His current research interests are: electromechanics, vibration and acoustical processes into electromechanical systems, MEMS, piezoactuators. He is an author of more than 100 scientific publications including 1 monograph and 6 textbooks.

His positions as a volunteer in IEEE are:

- Vice-chair and treasurer of St. Petersburg IEEE PE/IE/EMC Joint Chapter (2000-2003);
- IEEE Russia Northwest Section Treasurer and IEEE Russia Northwest Section Memberships Committee Chairman; also he is responsible person on students' activity in IEEE Russia Northwest Section (from the beginning of the year 2004).