The E-Scientia Around the World Symposium, hosted by the IEEE Educational Activities Board and the IEEE Uruguay Section will establish a model for leveraging informal learning environments to excite and inform pre-university students about IEEE's fields of interest. The objective of this 2 ½ day Symposium, is to plan the expansion of a hands-on museum exhibit called E-Scientia to science and technology museums in IEEE Regions globally. To learn more about the E-Scientia exhibit visit:

- We are seeking enthusiastic IEEE Volunteers with interest in partnering with local science and technology museums to participate in this Symposium and facilitate the expansion of E-Scientia in their Region.
- The event will begin on Wednesday, 6 July 2011 with a dinner reception at 7:30pm UYT. On 7 & 8 July 2011, the event will run from 8:00am to approximately 4:00pm UYT each day. Activities will include a tour of the E-Scientia exhibit, discussions on the refinement of educational materials, award reception for E-Scientia contest and expansion planning.
- IEEE will cover reasonable travel-related expenses for a limited number of Symposium participants. Up to two nights' hotel accommodations, transportation to/from the location of the Symposium and meals during the Symposium will be provided for all participants
- A limited number of seats are available, so please submit your statement of interest no later than 15 May 2011 through the online pre-registration site:
