

Robert's Rules of Order

Lawrence W.C. Wong
IEEE Region 10 Director-Elect

IEEE Region 10 Meeting
Cebu, Philippines
27-28 February 2010

Rules of order

- Rules of order, also known as standing orders or rules of procedure, are written rules of parliamentary procedure adopted by a deliberative assembly, which detail the processes used by the body to make decisions
- IEEE Bylaws I-300. Management
Robert's Rules of Order shall be used to conduct business at meetings of the IEEE Board of Directors, Major Boards, Standing Committees and other organizational units of the IEEE unless other rules of procedure are specified in the Not-For-Profit Corporation Law of the State of New York, the IEEE Certificate of Incorporation, the IEEE Constitution, these Bylaws, the IEEE Policies, resolutions of the IEEE Board of Directors, or the applicable governing documents of those organizational units provided such organizational documents are not in conflict with any of the foregoing.

Origins

- Henry Martyn Robert:
Pocket Manual of Rules of Order for Deliberative Assemblies, February 1876
- Loosely modelled after rules used in the United States House of Representatives
- Robert was an active member of several organizations, to help simplify and organise meetings he decided to write a manual which would enable organizations to adopt a parliamentary procedure

Rules of Order in R10 Committee

- All members of the committee have equal rights to participate in debate, except that non-voting members do not have right to vote
- Substantial parts of the meetings are organised in a informal way
- Formal parts of meetings are normally conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules
 - Robert's Rules may not be well known in the countries of Region 10, given their diversity of social, cultural and historical background
- The Chair should facilitate an orderly, equal and fair debate to take place on all issues
- The Chair must take a neutral position and may only vote when his/her vote may change the outcome

Main ideas

- Simplify parliamentary procedure, not to complicate it
- Everyone has the right to speak once if they wish, before anyone may speak a second time
- Everyone has the right to know what is going on at all times
- Only urgent matters may interrupt a speaker
- Members discuss one item at a time

How to do things...

You want to bring up a new idea before the group.

- After recognition by the Chair, present your motion
- A second is required for the motion to go to the floor for consideration (and the motion now belongs to the body)

You want a motion just introduced by another person to be killed

- Without recognition from the Chair, state "I object to consideration"
- This must be done before any debate
- This requires no second, is not debatable and requires a 2/3 vote

You want to change some of the wording in a motion under debate

- After recognition by the Chair, move to amend by adding words, striking words or striking and inserting words
- This may be recognised as a friendly amendment by the person [or body] who proposed the original motion

How to do things...

You like the idea of a motion under debate, but you need to reword it beyond simple word changes

- Move to substitute the motion for the original motion
- If it is seconded, debate will continue on both motions and eventually the body will vote on which motion they prefer

You feel the motion addresses two or more separate issues

- Move to divide the question

You want more study and/or investigation given to the idea under debate

- Move to refer to a committee
- Be specific as to the charge to the committee

You want more time personally to study the proposal under debate

- Move to postpone to a definite time or date

How to do things...

You want to postpone a motion until some later time

- Move to table the motion
- The motion may be taken from the table after 1 item of business has been conducted
- If the motion is not taken from the table by the end of the next meeting, it is dead

You have heard enough debate

- Move to call the question; this cuts off debate and brings the assembly to a vote on the pending question only
- Requires a 2/3 vote

You want to take a short break

- Move to recess for a set period of time.

You want to end the meeting

- Move to adjourn

How to do things...

You are unsure that the chair has announced the results of a vote correctly

- Without being recognized, call for a "division of the house."
- At this point a standing vote will be taken

You are confused about a procedure being used and want clarification

- Without recognition, call for "Point of Information" or "Point of Parliamentary Inquiry"
- The chair will ask you to state your question and will attempt to clarify the situation

You have changed your mind about something that was voted on earlier in the meeting for which you were on the winning side

- Move to reconsider
- If the majority agrees, the motion comes back on the floor as though the vote had not occurred

Summary

You may INTERRUPT a speaker for these reasons only

- to get information about business - point of information
- to get information about rules - parliamentary inquiry
- if you can't hear, safety reasons, comfort, etc. - question of privilege
- if you see a breach of the rules - point of order
- if you disagree with the chair's ruling - appeal

You may influence WHAT the members discuss:

- if you would like to discuss something - motion
- if you would like to change a motion under discussion - amend

You may influence HOW and WHEN the members discuss a motion

- if you want to discuss the topic at another time - postpone or lay it on the table
- if you think people are ready to vote - call the question
