Chapter Management

- Your ability to motivate volunteers to help with events such as meetings, seminars, and community work is crucial to your chapter's success. Help in navigating the IEEE and Computer Society resources available to you as well as a few hints on working with volunteers are offered by making use of the information offered on the following web sites:
- <http://www.computer.org/portal/web/chapters>
- http://www.ieee.org/web/geo_activities/units/Resources/new-officer/info.html
- http://www.ieee.org/web/geo_activities/units/Resources/Publications.html

Use the New Officer Training at: http://www.ieee.org/web/geo_activities/units/Resources/new-officer/info.html

On the left side, there is a "Geographic Unit Operations" sidebar with a list of links: Affinity Groups, Unit Bylaws/Addendums, Chapters, FAQs, New Officer Information, Quick Start Training for Geographic Unit Leaders, Recognition Products (certificates, plaques, banners), Required Reporting / Rebates, Resources for Officers (highlighted), Unit Formation / Petitions, and Member and Geographic Activities Homepage.

On the right side, there is a "Resources for Officers" sidebar with a list of links: Electronic Communications, Financial Resources, Helpful Web Links, New Officer Information, Newsletters, Quick Start Training for Geographic Unit Leaders, Publications, Guides, Handbooks, Reference Material, IEEE Governance Documents, and IEEE Volunteer Resources.

At the bottom of the main content area, there are two more links: "Quick Start Training for Geographic Unit Leaders - This training assumes you have been recently elected to a position within your Geographic Unit and want to quickly learn the basics of your position. Training is available for the following positions: Section Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, Treasurer and Technical Chapter Chair. These modules will help you get off to a good start." and "Officer Job Descriptions - A summary of duties for the volunteers that may participate in a Section's management, and the type and level of activity planned for the year." and "Unit Calendar - Monthly summary of IEEE Section officer duties."

Mandatory Requirements for Chapters

- The job of a Chapter Chair includes the successful completion of a few requirements to satisfy IEEE regulations and maintain “active” status. These tasks and how to complete them are covered throughout the reference guide and are listed here for quick review.

- ● Chapter must maintain a minimum of 10 Members.
- ● Chapter must report officers (Chapter Chair) annually to the administrative Section.
- ● Chapter must report all meetings annually to IEEE headquarters and your Section using the L-31 form at <http://www.ieee.org/L31>. A minimum of two technical meetings per year is required to maintain viability.
- ● Chapter Chair must fulfill the duties and responsibilities outlined in the Chapter Chair job description (see reference guide).
