Strategic Themes for 2011

- Increasing member engagement (i.e. member involvement, utilization and/or awareness of IEEE-USA and its products and services), and
- Diversifying IEEE-USA's revenue sources in order to reduce our budgetary reliance on the U.S. membership assessment.

IEEE★USA Member Engagement 1

- Must deliver program to members
 - Local activities
 - Local engagement can be the best
 - Prepared programs for local volunteers to deliver (will have a list of PowerPoints with speaker notes and recorded presentations)
 - Need to reach Millennial's and Gen Xer's
 - 3 or more programs per section chosen based on local needs/interests
 - Must deliver whether section has a Pace Chair or not
 - Availability of Professional Development Funds to support local activities

Member Engagement 2

- Webinars to be increased to reach broad audience
- Greater communications on topics members are interested in.
- Professional Home
 - Develop communities of common interests
 - IP Professionals (R1-6 initiative)
 - Professional Engineers (CEUs/PDHs)
 - Unemployed
 - STEM, Policy, Practicing Engineers ...

Member Engagement 3

- Update web site to encourage member and volunteer involvement
- Need more volunteers
 - Regular volunteers
 - Virtual volunteers
 - Micro volunteers
 - Crowdsourcing
- Must build relationship with members
 - Need cooperation from all sections and chapters- best engagement

IEEE★USA Financial Opportunities

- Working on joint conferences/workshops related to professional activities and government relations
 - Suggest opportunities
- Looking for additional eBook topics/markets
- Other ideas?

IEEE-USA

■ Intellectual Property Professionals

$50k

- Develop an organizational "home" and series of targeted products and services for intellectual property professionals active in technology.
- Engagement with a community of intellectual property practitioners – patent lawyers, technical professionals, entrepreneurs, and others employed in both small businesses and large industries whose interests overlap law, public policy, technology and engineering practice.
- 1 October 2010: 10,004 active patent agents and 30,326 active attorneys with licenses to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark office.

■ On-Line Career Manager

$25k

- Develop an integrated set of web-based tools and resources for career self assessment, benchmarking, skills practice and mentoring.

■ Employment Networks

$10k

- Provide opportunity for members to network with employers to learn company hiring needs, employment trends and job opportunities.
- Promote and deliver IEEE employment-related projects and services (including IEEE-USA employment assistance services) to members in need.
