ORPHANAGE REACH OUT MISSION

On the occasion of India's 77th Independence Day, IEEE MVSr Student Branch undertook a charitable mission to visit the Safe Charitable Foundation, B.N Reddy, Hyderabad, which is an orphanage home to approximately 30 girls. This independent, non-profit organization is part of Helping Hands and aims to provide a safe haven for these girls. The mission's goal was to extend support to the foundation's efforts and engage in meaningful interaction with the children.

The volunteers, led by Dr. Hari Krishna, were warmly welcomed by Mr. Prasad and the young girls residing in the orphanage. Mr. Prasad provided insights into the girls' daily lives, the support they receive, and their current challenges. The girls then introduced themselves and showcased their creative endeavors, fostering an enthusiastic and interactive atmosphere.
