

Eastern Ontario Student Paper Competition 2007
held at Algonquin on March 29, 2007

Participating students from: Carleton U, Algonquin College, Queens U & RMC College

Wahab Almuhtadi, IEEE Ottawa Section opening the Competition 2007

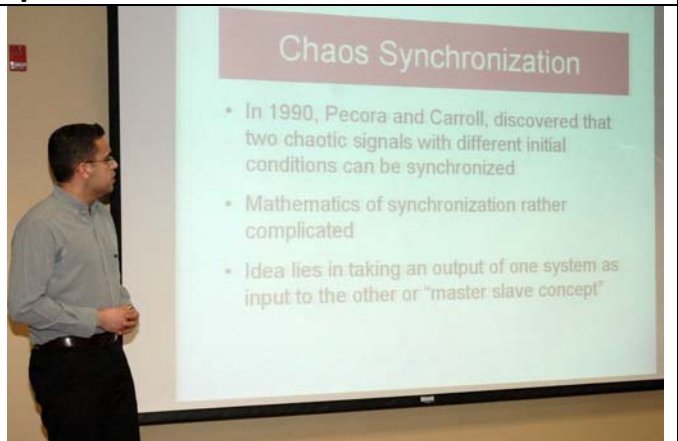

Wahab Almuhtadi, IEEE Ottawa Section Chair, and Jason Tang, Algonquin Student Branch Chair

Papers Competition

Saber Amini and Jerry Lam, Carleton University
Students presenting their paper "Chaos Encryption"

Mike Kulesza, Yin He, and Yu-Chen Shih of Queen's University Students presenting their paper "Improved Portable Electrocardiogram (ECG) Device"

Corey Shelson and Nick Deloye from Royal Military College presenting their paper "Autonomous Reconnaissance Patrol Robot (ARPR)"

Emmanuel Okoh and Aniefiok Akapan Algonquin College students presenting their paper "Construction and Testing of Duplex Optical Audio and Video Transmission Link"

IEEE Ottawa Section judges:

(L-R) Sreeraman Rajan, Sherif Sherif, Colin Cantlie, Carolyn MacIsaac, and Voicu Groza

Announcement of the WINNERS for the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd awards

1st place winners:

Corey Shelton and Nick Deloyer from Royal Military College as the 1st place winners for their paper "Autonomous Reconnaissance Patrol Robot (ARPR)", and

Saber Amini and Jerry Lam from Carleton University as the 1st place winners for their paper "Chaos Encryption"

2nd place winner:

Yin He, and Yu-Chen Shih as the 2nd place winners for presenting their paper "Improved Portable Electrocardiogram (ECG) Device"

3rd place winner:

Aniefiok Akapan and Emmanuel Okoh as the 3rd place winners for presenting their paper "Construction and Testing of Duplex Optical Audio and Video Transmission Link"

All winners and everybody happy

Wahab Almuhtadi, IEEE Ottawa Section Chair presenting a certificate of recognition to Jason Tang, Algonquin Student Branch Chair for organizing this event.

Wahab Almuhtadi, IEEE Ottawa Section Chair presenting a certificate of recognition to Devin Murphy, Algonquin Student Branch Vice-Chair for organizing this event.

After the competition, a tour to the Photonics Engineering Lab and Optical(Nortel) Lab at School of Advanced Technology, Algonquin College.

