Meeting was called to order by Jonathan Jordan.

- Bottleneck is website at this point. We know Dennis is actively working on it (thanks).
- Process for inviting people to FFATC is complete we believe. We simply need to complete website.
- Get titles of subjects of papers from leadership team for symposium.
  - Discuss more next month with team – intent to submit
  - Should we be technology (broad) level or product specific
- Bill Drake will not be able to participate. We need to select another manufacturing representative.
