

IEEE ELECTRIC SHIP TECHNOLOGIES SYMPOSIUM IEEE ESTS 2009

April 20-22 at the Sheraton Inner Harbor Hotel, Baltimore, Maryland

CALL FOR PAPERS

The ESTS 2009 is focusing on electric ship technologies in the following major areas:

- Integrated Electric Power Systems
- Open Architecture Systems and components specifications
- Design tools for analysis, synthesis, modeling & simulation
- Electric Propulsion (Machines, Drives, Propulsors)
- Electrical Power Conversion, Distribution and Storage
- Power Quality and Impact of Pulsed Power Loads
- Protection, reconfiguration and survivability
- Tests, Evaluation and Certification
- Electrical Ship standards

Commercial & military ships end-users, shipbuilders, port operators, classification societies, machinery and equipment manufacturers, research institutes, universities and others organizations around the world are invited to present their views, opinions, experiences and their studies, research, designs and future advances on these subjects. Panel sessions and poster presentations will also be held for these topics.

SUBMISSION OF DIGESTS

Those wishing to present papers are invited to submit digests to the ESTS 2009 Technical Committee by December 8, 2008. Your digest (up to 1000 words) should include:

- Paper title, name(s) of principal author(s) and organization(s)
- Whether you propose to submit a complete paper or only a PowerPoint presentation
- Primary point of contact, address, telephone and facsimile numbers, and email address
- Text providing sufficient detail for the Technical Committee to perform a review.
- The text should include a problem statement or introduction, an outline of the key points to be made in the paper, and conclusions or recommendations.

Digests should be submitted online at <http://www.epapers.org/ests2009/ESR/>.

ACCEPTANCE OF PAPERS

The Technical Committee will accept papers on the basis of the digests submitted. The authors of accepted papers will be requested to submit the final manuscripts of their papers for inclusion in the Proceedings (CD-ROM) and IEEE Xplore by February 2, 2009
