

16th Annual Carnahan Cup Golf Championship

The 16th Annual Carnahan Cup Golf Championship will be held Tuesday, October 5th, at Coyote Creek Golf Club (coyotecreekgolf.com). This golf course in San Jose, California offers great views of rolling hills and sweeping meadows across the southern tip of the Silicon Valley. With lush manicured fairways and challenging greens, golfing at Coyote Creek golf course is nothing short of grand!

The Carnahan Cup will be played on the Jack Nicklaus-designed Coyote Creek Valley Course, which has generous open fairways with lakes and waterfalls. 7,000 challenging yards make the Valley Course great for virtually any golfer, from beginner to pro.

Fees

$65.00 Includes transportation, green fees, range balls, cart, prizes.
$50.00 Club rental

Schedule

8:00 a.m. Depart Dolce Hayes Mansion Hotel
9:00 a.m. First tee time

Lunch following the tournament at the course restaurant (not included in the tournament fee).

Prizes

Prizes will be awarded for first place (the Carnahan Cup), as well as longest drive and closest to the pin (both Men and Women). Participation and door prizes will also be awarded.

Dress Code

Coyote Creek does enforce a dress code; no blue jeans or cutoffs, collared shirts required, only soft-spike shoes.

Registration

Please register on the conference registration site (<http://ewh.ieee.org/conf/iccst/>).

Contact

Bill Claycomb or Dan Pritchard
(wrclayc@sandia.gov or dpritch@ieee.org)

