

Applications of Technology in Sport

Date: Monday 19 October 2009

Time: 1.00 to 2.30 pm

(5 x 10 min presentations including question time followed by afternoon tea with presenters)

Topics & Presenters:

- Emerging technology exchange for development of monitoring systems for sporting applications
Associate Professor Yuji Ohgi (Keio University, Japan)
- Evolution of applied sport technology: practical implications
Dr Daniel James (CoE, GU)
- Towards a wearable device for monitoring cricket bowling action
Dr. Andrew Wixted (GU)
- Applications of technology for swimming
Associate Professor Brendan Burkett (CoE, USC)
- A comparison of inertial sensors and motion capture using the soccer long throw
Dr David Rowlands (GU)

Venue: QAS Lecture Room, Level 1 QSAC.

RSVP: So that we may accommodate everyone and arrange afternoon tea, please RSVP by 5pm Tuesday 13 October 2009 to julie.bowring@communities.qld.gov.au