

Biography for Bobbi Welch
12/08/03

Bobbi Welch is currently employed by American Transmission Company in the role of System Operations Project Manager. In this role, Bobbi is responsible for policy development and tracking industry trends that impact the System Operations Department. Prior to her work with ATC, Bobbi served in a variety of positions within the energy industry, including Retail and Wholesale Power Marketing, Generation Planning, and Account Management. Most recently, Bobbi was employed as the Director, Power Marketing for Peoples Energy Services in Chicago, Illinois. In that position, Bobbi was responsible for building and maintaining a retail power marketing unit for Peoples Energy that participated in the deregulated commercial and industrial power markets in Illinois. Bobbi holds both a Masters degree in Business Administration and a Bachelor's of Science degree in Electrical Engineering.

Biography for Edina Bajrekarevic
02/04/2004

Edina Bajrektarevic is employed by American Transmission Company (ATC) in the role of Operations Planning Engineer. She comes to ATC after 9 years in academia. Her experience includes: Professional Internship at Exelon Corp. (Com Ed), Chicago, USA. Graduate Teaching Assistantship, Morgantown, West Virginia University. Teaching Assistantship, Faculty of Electrical Engineering, Tuzla, Bosnia. Logistics Support to US Army in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Halliburton, Tuzla, Bosnia. She received M.S. in Electrical Engineering from West Virginia University in 2002 and B.S. in Electrical Engineering from Faculty of Electrical Engineering, Tuzla, Bosnia & Herzegovina in 1998. Her fields of interest include Power System Operations and Control, Power System Development, and Economics and Marketing of Power System.

Biography for Judy Daley
12/24/2003

Judy Daley graduated from Marquette University in 1985 with a degree in Biomedical Engineering. Went to Marquette for another year and received a degree in Electrical Engineering in 1986. Started working at Wisconsin Electric in 1986 as a Substation Engineer. Worked at Wisconsin Electric as an Operations Engineer/Senior Operations Engineer from 1987 to 2001. Joined American Transmission Company in 2001 as Senior Operations Engineer.