Annual Banquet

A sincere thanks to all who came to and helped out with our annual banquet, held March 30. We had forty three people and plenty of wine, plus an excellent presentation on the complex interaction between geology, climate and grapes needed to produce an enjoyable vintage. Dave Lageson, our guest speaker provided a well informed and highly personal perspective on wine, electrons and geology.

Special April Meeting

Thursday, April 12, 5:30 PM

@ Montana State University, 412 Roberts hall (corner of 7th and Grant)

The IEEE will be hosting Jason Kracht on April 12th at 5:30 in Roberts Room 412, Montana State University, Bozeman. He is the Special Handling Engineering Technical Lead for the Signal Source and Signal Analysis division of Agilent Technologies (also an MSU graduate), and is willing to gear his talk around our interests. Please RSVP to Andy Lingley, andylingley@gmail.com, with talk ideas, whether it be a discussion about working for Agilent, a technical talk about signal generators or spectrum analyzers, or anything else that seems fitting. Hope to see you there!
