What's an SPA|X?

- Pronounced “spa ex”
- SPA still stands for Student Professional Awareness while the X is the variable students decide how to present.
- It can be anything from a traditional conference or venture (S-PAC or S-PAVe) or can be industry visit, humanitarian field project, or informal social activity focused on professional skills development.

What's an SPA|X?

- Students can explore and customize their event to meet the professional needs, expectations, and interests in a way that suits their specific branch as long as it relates to at least one of the eight S-PAC core areas:
 - Career Development
 - Professional Integrity
 - Personal Skills
 - Engineers and Public Policy
 - Leadership in Professional Organizations
 - The Practice of Innovation
 - The Art of Communication
 - Humanitarian Grand Challenges
- Each SPA|X and would have to be approved by Student Professional Awareness Committee.

What's an SPA|X?

- SPA|X tagline – Explore. Engage. Experience.
- Initially announced on 8/7/14
- Should be ready to be fully deployed in January 2015.

How can I help with an SPA|X?

- You can help by getting your sections involved with the Student Branches
 - Be a Resource
 - Develop list of possible ideas, speakers, panels, field trips, etc. that the members of the section would be willing to work on with the student branches
 - Be a Sponsor
 - Offer to defray the cost on their event
 - Provide door prizes
 - Provide food
 - Be a Mentor
 - Work with the students to identify skills they need to expand on
 - Be a sounding board for their ideas and help make them a reality
 - Put them in touch with R3 S-PAC Coordinator or Support Coordinator
