IEEE R3 Richmond Section Report

Mar 21, 2022

Issues requiring action by the Region 3 Committee or ExCom

None at this time.

Successes/Opportunities for Engaging the member, volunteer, non-member, public

- No major updates since last month.

Notable section activities (positive and negative)

- The Computer Society Richmond Chapter, the Magnetics/Engineering in Medicine & Biology Joint Richmond Chapter, the Computer Society Northern Virginia/Washington Joint Chapter, the Virginia Commonwealth University Student Branch, and the Virginia State University Student Branch hosted a talk by Dr. Dejan Milojicic, IEEE Fellow and Director at HP Labs, Palo Alto, CA on the IEEE Computer Society's 2022 Technology Predictions and their Future of Work study. Unfortunately, the meeting details did not get finalized in time to get the meeting announcement into Region 3's monthly newsletter, but the meeting was recorded and links to the recording and slides can be found at <https://events.vtools.ieee.org/m/306231>.
