Student branches are the backbone of the IEEE student program. That is why IEEE has created a variety of resources here to ensure that they are successful in their work.

◆ How to form new student groups

Guidelines for establishing an IEEE Student Branch as well as the required petition form are available in two formats below.

- › Student Branch Formation PDF \(PDF, 143KB\)
- › Student Branch Formation Word Document \(DOC, 144KB\)

Information is also available on establishing an IEEE student branch chapter of technical societies. A Student Branch Chapter is a technical sub-unit of an IEEE Student Branch.

- › Student Branch Chapter Formation PDF \(PDF, 32KB\)
- › Student Branch Chapter Formation Word Document\(DOC, 65.5KB\)

Students may also petition to establish an IEEE student branch affinity group of Women in Engineering. A Student Branch affinity group is a sub-unit of an IEEE Student Branch.

Branch Reporting Officer Reporting

♦ Steps for Student Branch reporting

Student Branches can report their officers at any time during the year and annually when elections are held.

› Online student officer reporting

In May 2010, annual activity reporting for Student Branches is available online. This easy to use online form will simplify the annual reporting that all Student Branches are required to submit to IEEE. The one, simple online form takes the place of the printed annual report of activities and the annual plan of activities. You will need your IEEE web account username and password to log in.

› Student Branch activity report online

Upon submitting the online form in May or two months after the academic year ends for you, the Student Branches will receive a combined payment of the Student Branch rebate/allotment, which is based on membership statistics as of 31 December 2009.

To assist Student Branches with operational expenses, IEEE provides financial assistance directly to Student Branches. The online reporting gives IEEE important updates from the Student Branch including a web site and email address, financial data, a calendar of planned activities for the next academic year and events held during the previous academic year, feedback on their primary purpose, goals and challenges. The Student Branch will also be able to send copies of the reporting to the Region and Section by entering e-mail addresses.

days following the election.

- Use IEEE e-mail aliases when available.
- If a newly elected Officer does not meet eligibility requirements, or if Officers are not reported, the position will be listed as vacant until reporting of an eligible officer is received.
- Remember to print a copy for your records in order to verify against the most recent Geographic Activities Roster.

Chapters/Affinity Groups

The Chapter/Affinity Group Chair and Treasurer name, member number, and e-mail address should be sent to the section secretary for section records and submission with the section's reports, within 20 days of an election. If the same officer is going to be in place for an upcoming year, send that information to the Section Secretary in December, along with updated contact information if applicable.
