The International Immunization Certificate against yellow fever will only be required from international travelers coming from countries which pose a risk of international dissemination. In order to be sure about the actual requirements (they eventually change), please contact the local Embassy of Colombia in your country or your Travel Agency to be properly informed.

B) Invitation Letter
In case you need an invitation letter from “RR 2014” as a requirement for obtaining your VISA, please request it as follows:

- Name (as in the passport)
- Passport number

C) VISA or Not VISA

Foreigners from 85 different countries don’t need a travel visa when traveling to Colombia for tourism. You can find the list of countries at http://www.cancilleria.gov.co/sites/default/files/RESOLUCION%205707%20DE%202008_0.pdf

If you are from one of the countries that requires visa, you must apply for a tourist visa in an accredited Colombian consulate abroad before traveling to Colombia. More info at http://www.cancilleria.gov.co/en/procedures_services/visas

12. - What currency is used in Colombia?

The currency used in Colombia is the Peso ($). You can exchange currency in specialized currency exchange shops, airports, hotels and banks. Never exchange your money on the street. The exchange rate fluctuates daily; on January 26th 1 USD costs $1993.

13. - How is the weather in March?

At 2,640 meters above the sea level, Bogota’s climate is cool. At day the average temperature is 14° C (57° F) and at night the average temperature is 10° C (50° F). However, its mountain climate is completely unpredictable. The dawn could be sunny but shortly after that it could be heavily rain. Usually at night the temperature drops. You should always go out prepared with a coat or a jacket.

Weather information can be seen at: http://www.weather.com.

14. - Is Bogota a safe city?

In Bogotá, you won’t find any more risks than you would in any other of the world’s capital cities. The key is being cautious, sticking to certain areas of the city and choosing appropriate times to go out.

15. – How much does a taxi service cost?

Inside the car, you will always see an ID for the car and for the driver, as well as a pricing chart that indicates the price in pesos ($) according to the meter. Taxis only accept cash. The minimum cost of a travel is $3.600 (less than 2 dollars).

For safety reasons, avoid hailing a taxi in the street, especially at night. It is always better to ask for one in your hotel or by calling a taxi company.
Trips to and from the airport, outside the city boundaries, at night and on holidays have an added fee.

All RR2014 delegates will be provided with transportation airport-hotel and back. But all must be registered with their flight schedules to optimize the transportation system. However if a delegate requires taxis for transportation from the airport to the city, we recommend hiring licensed sites at airport, the average cost is USD 10.00
