Women's Day:

For more than 100 years, the world has celebrated International Women's Day on March 8. Organizations, governments, charities, educational institutions, women groups and the media celebrate this day. This special day recognizes the advances made by women and girls all over the world. It is a day on which women, men, girls and boys come together to celebrate, show solidarity and recognise the dreams, aspirations and empowerment of women. International Women's Day is an opportunity to commemorate the bravery of women in confronting injustice.

Women's Day Celebrations at MVSR Engineering College

The women's day celebrations details:

Date: Friday, March 8th, 2013.

Time: 3:20 PM to 5:30 PM

Venue: CSE Seminar Hall, CS/IT Block, MVSR Engineering College, Nadergul.

Thousands of events occur not just on this day but throughout MARCH to mark economics, political and social, cultural achievements of women. Many groups around the world choose different themes each year. We the students of IEEE WIE members of MVSR engineering college chose "WOMEN PROTECTION: Time for action to end violence against women" as the theme for 2013.

The event then kick started with a group discussion on the topic “WOMEN PROTECTION” between all the gathered faculty and students.

During the group discussion, the faculty members listening to the views of students.

This group discussion gave out few great views from the students, who are today's youth and our country's tomorrow. Some of them were:

“When women are empowered and can claim their rights and access to land, leadership, opportunities and choices, economies grow, food security is enhanced and prospects are improved for current and future generations” says a student from mechanical department.

“She is a woman, daughter, sister, friend, wife, mother and she should be deserved nothing less than HE “ a response from ECE student.

“Only Discussing and reporting is not enough, because it is not stopping the violence from happening. Women need a system that will help women whose rights are violated not only speak up but to be provided a second chance to live a normal life” by a student from IT.

We had Mr.Janaiah, one of the teaching faculty from CSE Department joining the group discussion,sharing his views on the topic and thus concluding the discussion.

“Ultimately, it is up to all of us- in our locality, our nation, our global community, to create a world that is safe for women & girls in which all women have full enjoyment of all human rights” -the voice of all people/ women present in this event.

The evening continued with a JAM(- Just A Minute) session. Pairs consisting of a lecturer and a student randomly selected a number which gave them a topic on which they had to speak for a minute, spontaneously without any prior preparation.

SNIGDHA from IT 2/4, speaking during the JAM session.

All the faculty and students spoke in the jam session, expressing their views about the topics they selected, thus everyone getting an opportunity to speak.

This JAM session also provided good interaction between faculty and students.

The evening then, reached to its most excited part, which had a fun quiz for everyone present. This quiz was all about to test how well one knows about women brands and products used in our daily basis and also about different art works in ladies' jewellery and apparel.

Everyone present participated with great enthusiasm and won cool goodies for a right answer.

Students guessing the price of the watch projected on the screen, as a part of the fun quiz.
