Mr. Ch Sai Teja thanked sir and called upon Mrs. Vijaya Vahini, WIE Affinity group Advisor of IEEE MVSR SB to motivate the attendees. Mrs. Vijaya Vahini complimented the new office bearers and briefed them about the awards that were bagged by the IEEE MVSR student branch till present date. She also asked the secretaries and joint secretaries to maintain proper records of events organised and the participants lists. Mrs Vijaya Vahini also urged the members to plan innovative events. Next up, Mrs S. Aruna, Circuits and Systems Society (CASS) Advisor of IEEE MVSR SB was invited to address the meet. Mrs Aruna firstly extended her greetings to the executive committee members and briefed them about CASS. She also highlighted the efforts of the past CASS executive committees and urged the new members to take them as an example and perform the roles assigned to them dutifully.
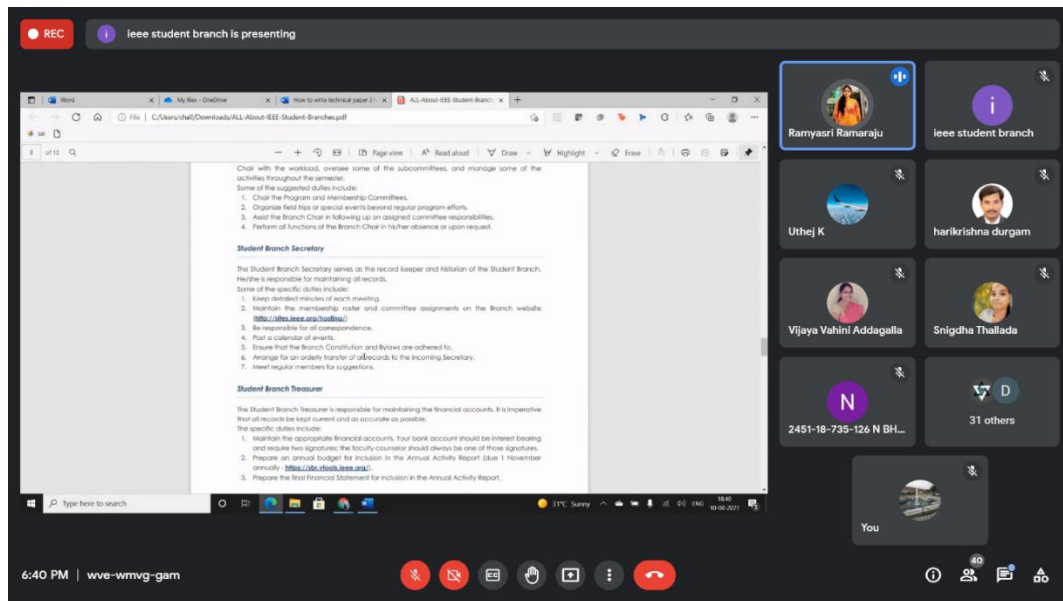

Followed by this, Mr Sai Teja, asked Mr. Uthej, Vice Chair, IEEE MVSR SB, to unveil the new poster and website. Dr Harikrishna described about the ways one can navigate IEEE MVSR website. He appreciated the updates and improvements made to the website. He also explained the resources present in the website one by one. Initially he started with home page where all details pertaining to Student Branch can found. He followed by explaining about the events tab where one can find all the reports of events conducted by IEEE MVSR SB and its chapters till date, these events were segregated year wise. Next, he detailed about the ExCom tab where all the information regarding the executive committee members is present. Awards tab was also showcased, it contained all the awards bagged by the student branch. Gallery contains all the photographs of major events which were undertaken by IEEE MVSR SB.

Dr D Hari Krishna explaining about website

Later, Mr. Sai Teja introduced the speaker for this session Ms. Ramyasri Ramaraju and handed over the session to her. Ms. Ramyasri is presently contributing her services to Accenture as Application Development Associate. She is also an IEEE Young Professional and held the role of IEEE MVSR Student Branch Chairperson for year 2018-2019. Ms Ramyasri congratulated the ExCom members and wished them luck to organise numerous events and bag awards. She then explained the roles and responsibilities of various ExCom positions. She began by explaining the duties of Chairperson. His responsibilities include preside over the meetings, maintain memberships, have proper lists of all events, vTools reporting and to oversee that all ExCom members are attending the general body meetings. She termed Chairperson as the brain of the student branch and chapters.
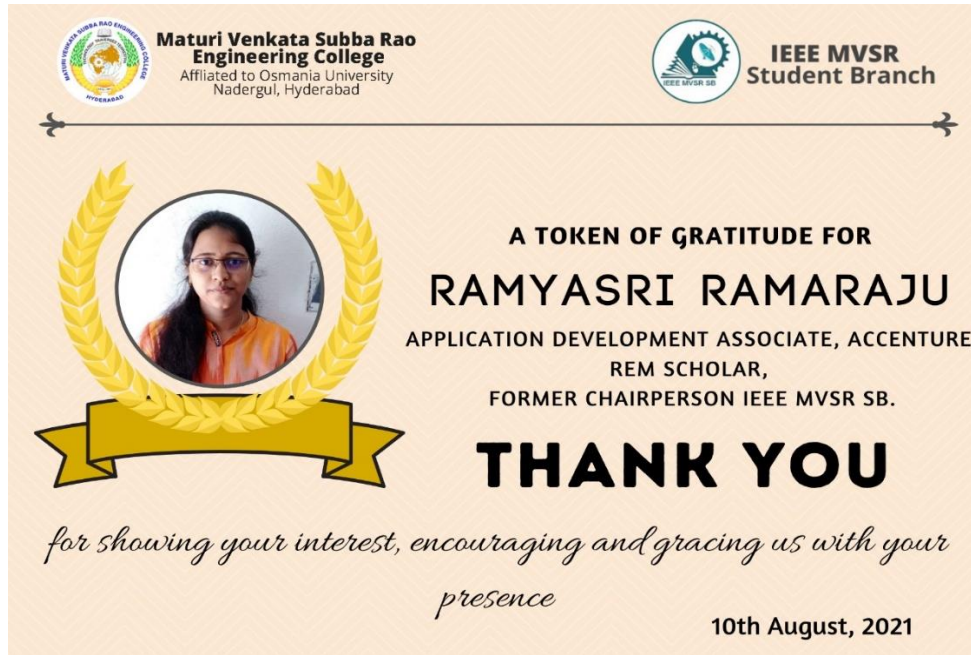

Followed by this Ms. Ramyasri explained about the responsibilities of Vice Chairperson. Obligations of Secretaries and Joint Secretaries were described next. Main duties include drafting event reports and to keep detailed minutes of meeting. She labelled the role of secretary as an important one as the reports act as a testament of a particular event. Treasurer and Women in Computing, Women in Power responsibilities were also explained. Treasurers were given an additional responsibility of exploring various awards and notifying the details about them to the IEEE members. Foremost duty of women in power and women in computing are to explore magazines and make their fellow IEEE members aware of the recent trends in technology and to organise events in collaboration with WIE Affinity Group.

Speaker Explaining about duties of ExCom Members

Roles and Responsibilities of Operating committee head and various committees were also explained. Under Operating Committee there are four committees namely, Design Committee, Program Committee, Publicity Committee and social media and content writing. It was also notified to the operating committee members that they come under main ExCom and have to render services to all chapters and affinity group alike when they are called upon to do so. Ms Ramyasri concluded by stating that all the ExCom members should work together as a team and guaranteed her support.

Mrs. Vijaya Vahini lauded Ms Ramyasri for explaining the roles and responsibilities of Executive committee in a lucid manner. She also thanked Ms. Ramyasri for her contributions to IEEE MVSR student branch. Virtual memento was presented to Ms. Ramyasri by Dr Harikrishna for agreeing to deliver this session despite of her busy schedule.

Virtual Memento Presented to Speaker

Later, Mr Sai Teja, Chairperson IEEE MVSR SB, notified the ExCom members about the two upcoming events. First event is a visit to an orphanage on August 15th 2021. Second event is a clothes drive organised by WIE Affinity group in Collaboration with Street Cause MVSR. Vote of thanks, was delivered by Mr Uthej, Vice Chair, IEEE MVSR SB, marked the end of training session.
