

Dr Delene Heukelman

ICTAS2017 Technical Chair

Faculty of Accounting and Informatics Research Coordinator (Acting)

Dr Heukelman holds a DTECH: Information Technology from DUT, M.Ed (Computers in Education) from Rhodes University, B.Sc. (Hons), B.Sc. (Ed) from Randse Afrikaanse Universiteit (now University of Johannesburg).

Dr Heukelman is currently the Chair of the research focus area ICT and Society at DUT. Her area of interest is Human Computer Interaction (HCI) and ICT in Education. She has a number of publications covering her varied interests including e-Skills, e-Readiness, HCI for rural communities and image processing. She has received NRF funding, an AESOP staff mobility grant and has a number of publications.

She is a reviewer for a number of conferences and journals and an external examiner of post graduate theses and dissertations. Past Projects include an online training programme for Community Development Workers in ICT skills, curriculum development for an entry-level qualification in IT, the Higher Certificate in Information Technology and developing a framework for assessment.