Invitation from General Co-Chairs

Dear Colleagues,

We are delighted to invite fellow roboticists around the world to the 6th IEEE-RAS International Conference on Soft Robotics (RoboSoft) to be held on April 3 – 7, 2023 at the vibrant Marina Bay Sands in Singapore.

RoboSoft 2023 will focus on the deeper integration of soft robotics and sustainable development. Event highlights will include world-renowned plenary speakers who will share their experiences both in exciting new areas in soft robotics as well as areas where soft robotics can have important impact in the near future. The program will also include workshops, competitions, a Soft Robotics Industry Panel, a Women in Soft Robotics Panel, a Sustainability Forum, and a Robotics Expo showcasing exciting developments from start-ups and major companies.

Participants will get to feast on Singapore's local delicacies during the lunch and coffee breaks, and enjoy our rich multi-cultural heritage performances at the Opening Ceremony and Conference Banquet. Our conference site, the Marina Bay Sands, is surrounded by some of the world's most distinctive architectural icons, including the bio-inspired durian-shaped Esplanade, the solar-powered Supertrees, and the energy-efficient Flower Dome and Cloud Forest at the Gardens by the Bay.

You will also be able to find out more about Singapore robotics through our special lab and company tours, and enjoy a social outing to the National Marine Laboratory located on St John's Island.

Above all, we are looking forward to the warm camaraderie in our soft robotics community. Join us at RoboSoft 2023 to share your ideas and to have thoughtful discussions on the path forward to drive meaningful advances in soft robotics, and how the field can better support sustainable development!

Sincerely
